

ANNA HASLER LAID TO REST

MT. PLEASANT.—Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Louisa Hasler, 86, widow of John Hasler, will be held Tuesday at 1 p. m. in the North ward chapel, Bishop Henry F. Olson presiding.

Mrs. Hasler died Saturday night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. George C. Sorensen, from general debility incident to old age.

She was born August 26, 1843, in Turgen, Switzerland, where she was married to John Hasler, May 8, 1869. They came to Utah that year. She was one of the earliest musicians, church workers and educators in Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Hasler was a pioneer musician, composer and song writer, and Mrs. Hasler collaborated. She served more than 33 years as secretary in the Mt. Pleasant Relief society.

Surviving are five sons and daughters, Dr. Walter T. Hasler and Mrs. A. C. Candler of Provo, Mrs. George C. Sorensen, Emil and Henry Hasler of Mt. Pleasant. Twenty-seven grandchildren and four great grandchildren also survive.
